CONNECTING ROCKLAND'S BACKYARD GARDENERS AND FOOD BANKS IN NEED OF FRESH PRODUCE!

Launched in 1995 by the Garden Writers Association (GWA), Plant A Row (PAR) encourages gardeners to grow a little extra and donate the produce to local soup kitchens and food pantries serving the homeless and hungry. PAR's mission is to provide an avenue through which individuals, corporations and over 84 million gardening households in the U.S. can help America's most vulnerable citizens and the food agencies serving them.

In 2007, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reported that 36 million people, including 13.9 million children, live in households that experience hunger or the risk of hunger daily. That is 1 in 8 Americans!

Last year Rockland gardeners and local farms donated over 3,200 pounds of produce to those in need. This year join your friends and neighbors and plant a row — or more, and donate your fresh produce to one of the many food banks, soup kitchens and agencies serving the needy here in Rockland County.
